Meet our pet of the week - Peppermint!

□ Hi there, I'm Peppermint, and let me tell you, I'm the sweetest little ball of fluff you'll ever meet! □

First things first, I am ALL about the cuddles. Seriously, if you're looking for a furry friend who adores being held, that's me. There's nothing better than snuggling up in your arms and feeling the warmth of your love.

I've got this adorable habit of wanting to be close to you, to feel your presence. If I seem a bit eager to climb over your shoulder, it's just because I want to be where the action is – and that's right by your side.

So, if you're in search of a sweet, affectionate companion who's ready to be your snuggle buddy and explore the world with you, look no further. Adopt Peppermint, and let's make some sweet memories together! ☐☐
